CÉGEP HERITAGE COLLEGE BYLAW #2 CONCERNING THE COLLECTION OF STUDENT FEES

---

Preamble<sup>1</sup>

The General and Vocational Colleges Act specifies clearly the circumstances under which a college may collect fees from students. These fees fall into two general categories, “tuition fees,” and “other fees.”

Tuition Fees:

With respect to tuition fees, article 24 of the Act states:

No college may charge tuition fees for the instruction it provides within the scope of a program of college studies to a full-time student in such a program unless permitted by law.

Nevertheless, the Act does oblige the College to collect tuition fees in certain specific circumstances. In this regard, the law states that the College is obliged to collect tuition fees, the amount to be set by regulation, from students who are registered in a program as part-time students. The amount established in this situation is $2.00 per period of instruction.

A student who is registered in a program on a part-time basis will obtain a 70% refund of the tuition fees paid for any course(s) if that student officially withdraws from the course(s) by the published deadline or before 20% of said course(s) has elapsed.

Other Fees:

The issue of fees categorized as “other” is also addressed in the Act. Article 24.5 states:

No college may, except by bylaw, prescribe the payment of admission or registration fees for college instruction services or other similar fees pertaining to those services.

- b) to establish those tuition fees which the College is entitled to collect, but which are not specified in the law or its accompanying regulations.
