

Heritage College Liberal Arts and Science Students receive Canada Millennium Excellence Awards

Heritage College is proud to announce that four of its students, three of whom are 2008 graduates, have received 2008 Millennium Excellence Awards from the Canada Millennium Scholarship Foundation.

Congratulations to the following award recipients, all of whom have received one-time $4,000 Canada Millennium grants at the local level:

Thomas Belway, 2008 Science graduate (with distinction<sup>1</sup>)
James Farr, 2008 Liberal Arts graduate (with distinction)
Hayley Miloff, second-year Liberal Arts student.

Congratulations also to 2008 Heritage Liberal Arts graduate with great distinction,<sup>2</sup> Alexandra Blair, who has received a $4,000 provincial-level Millennium Scholarship which is renewable for a total of $16,000.

This year, the Canada Millennium Scholarship Foundation's Board of Directors received almost 10,000 applications from across the country. The Millennium Excellence Award laureates are chosen for their outstanding achievement in four key areas: academic performance, community service, leadership and innovation.
