Heritage College Students Support World Vision's 30-Hour Famine

Participation in this year's World Vision 30-Hour Famine by Heritage College students was a huge success! The event took place at the College from 6:00 a.m. on Friday, April 7 until 12 p.m. on Saturday, April 8. During the day, participants kept themselves busy with a variety of activities including cards, movies, video games, hockey and volleyball.

A total of 32 participants raised over $1435 for children and communities in need around the world. These funds will help to provide nutritious food, clean water, shelter and medicine to the countries where these things are most needed. Special thanks to everyone who took part, and congratulations to the top three fundraisers: Jessica Cloutier ($258.10), Zachary Evershed ($130.00) and Lily Polowin ($90.00). Also, special mention goes to Sean Hicks, Ayrian McCredie and Ben Watson, who participated in the McGill Intramurals and joined the famine as well. The organizers also thank the Heritage College Student Association for their generous donation.

Thanks go out also to:

- Donald, Ellen and Diane from Building Services
- Wayne, Geneviève and Jean from Student Services; and
- Jacques, the Security Guard

When the famine was over, participants enjoyed pizza, courtesy of a charity discount from Ottawa's Cheesy Pizza and Pasta.
