Heritage College 2007 Charity Fashion/Talent Show Raises $1,300 for the Ottawa Food Bank!

The recent two-night Charity Fashion/Talent Show organized by students from the Science, Social Science, Commerce and Visual Arts programs at Heritage College was a resounding success, raising $1,300 for the Ottawa Food Bank!

More than 30 models, all of them Heritage students, put on first-rate fashion shows two nights in a row for capacity crowds in the College auditorium, showcasing merchandise from Attic, Bijou Cruzoé, Dali, Karma, Laura, Mandeep, Milk, Ottawa's Finest Indian Boutique and Top of the World. Entertainment included performances by dancers, singers and a band.

Heritage College congratulates Science program coordinator Cathy Young and the following members of the Organizing Committee for their outstanding efforts on behalf of a very worthy cause: from the Science program, Thomas Belway, Elisa Bernier, Christine Grainger, Samantha Grainger, Jason Ivall, Kim Mitchell, Sabine Uwitonze and Matthew Washer; from Social Science, Alyssa Cousineau and Patricia Kinahan; from Commerce, Brittany Doyle; from Visual Arts, Meredith Jay and Ayrian McCredie. Kudos also go to Social Science student Sophie Lamothe and Commerce student Eric Shantz, the engaging Masters of Ceremonies for the second year in a row. Thanks also to all of the behind-the-scenes designers, sound and lighting technicians, set designers, make-up artists and hairstylists.
