Heritage College Hurricane Female Rugby Team – first Outaouais college team to play in FQSE league

Gatineau, September 16, 2010. – On Sunday September 19th, 2010, Heritage College's Hurricane female rugby team will be the first ever Outaouais college rugby team to play in the Fédération québécoise du sport étudiant (FQSE) provincial league.

The team will compete against Dawson College - a Montreal cégep currently ranked #1 in the league. There is a lot of excitement in the air as Heritage's female rugby team is the first ever and the only college team in the Outaouais to have a program to compete in the provincial league.

Heritage's rugby coaches Marc Wolvin and Mylène Mongeon, team captains Nathalie Palmer and Samantha Yost and their team mates, are pumped-up for Sunday's game. "We have a talented group of athletes that have trained well this week and will give Dawson a real test Sunday. Bring it on!" says Marc Wolvin.
