Heritage College Career Graduates win Quebec Ministry of Education Grants

Ten graduates from the Computer Science and Electronics Technology (Computer Option) programs at Heritage College are the proud recipients of $3,000 grants from the Quebec Ministry of Education. Congratulations to Electronics Technology program graduates Mathieu Blais-Laflamme and Kevin Gibson of Gatineau, Jonathan Drolet of Hull, and Dominique Helie, Chad Levac and Eric Unterhoffer of Aylmer. Congratulations also to Computer Science graduates Kayla Carroll of Waltham, Alexandra Closs of Shawville, Angela Furniss of Ottawa and Denis St-Amour of Gatineau.

These Ministry bursaries are awarded to Quebec residents who, after studying at college for the first time, successfully graduate from an Electronics Technology or Computer Science program within the prescribed time limit.

For more information on the Electronics Technology (Computer Option) and Computer Science programs at West Quebec's only English cégep, visit the Heritage College website at www.cegep-heritage.qc.ca.
