Heritage College 2006 Charity Fashion Show Raises $1,000 for Operation Go Home!

The first Charity Fashion Show ever organized by the Heritage College Science Committee was a resounding success! This recent, sold-out event raised $1,000 for Operation Go Home.

Thirty models put on a first-rate fashion show for a capacity crowd in the Heritage College auditorium, showcasing merchandise from Bata/Monde des Athlètes, Fifth Avenue, Greg Landry, Indochyne, Laura Petite, Perle Noire, Rio Sud, Top of the World and Vision Underground. Other entertainment included performances by dancers, singers and an all-student band. Guest speakers from Operation Go Home were also on hand to talk about their programs and services to assist street youth, as well as their efforts to raise public awareness, and to reunite runaways and street kids with their families.

Heritage College congratulates Science program coordinator Cathy Young and the following members of the Science Committee for their outstanding efforts on behalf of a very worthy cause: Iman Al-Buhaisi, Elisa Bernier, Daniela Gamboretta, Kimberly Mitchel, Melissa Ranger, Sandrine Umunoza and Sabine Uwitonze. Kudos also go to Social Science student Sophie Lamothe and Commerce student Eric Shantz, the engaging Masters of Ceremonies for the event. The first-year students on the Science Committee plan repeat the fashion show next year.
