

Cégep Heritage College opens its doors to the public

Gatineau, January 22, 2016 – Cégep Heritage College, the Anglophone CEGEP in the Outaouais, is holding its Open House for the general public on Sunday January 31st. “We have been a fully autonomous CEGEP since July 1st 1988” states Michael Randall, Director General. “Our beautiful campus on Cité des Jeunes in Gatineau was built in 1994. We will be inaugurating a new wing in September 2016. We now have over 1200 students enrolled in our various Pre-University and Career programs. We invite the public to come and see everything we have to offer.”

On January 31st, from noon to 3:00 p.m., the public will be able to meet College senior management, faculty and staff, visit the pre-university, career and continuing education program showcases, find out about student life and athletics at Heritage, and obtain information about the services offered to its students.

Cégep Heritage College is located at 325 Cité des Jeunes, in Gatineau. The open house will be held from noon to 3:00 p.m. on Sunday January 31st 2016.

About Cégep Heritage College: Cégep Heritage College is one of 48 CEGEPs (Collèges d'Enseignement Général et Professionnel) in the province of Quebec, the only English CEGEP in Western Quebec. The College offers four pre-university programs, and eight career programs. What's more, its Centre for Continuing Education offers full-time programs leading to Attestations of College Studies, part-time courses and workshops, and made-to-measure programs for businesses out of its Gatineau and Pontiac campuses.

Quality education, small classes, a friendly atmosphere, and dynamic extra-curricular and social activities make Cégep Heritage College the perfect place to study and meet new friends. The College's modern facilities in Gatineau feature a gymnasium, fitness centre, dance studio, comprehensive library, and 156-seat auditorium. Our spacious campus grounds include a large soccer/rugby field, beach volleyball courts, and is close to biking and hiking paths.
