

Open House at Heritage College

Gatineau, October 1st, 2010. – Heritage College, the Anglophone CEGEP in the Outaouais, is holding an Open House for the general public on Sunday October 17th. The College opens its doors every winter to high-school students to allow them to hear about the programs offered at the College, but this is the first time the College opens its doors to the general public.

“Heritage College is one of the best-kept secrets in the Outaouais!” declares Louise Brunet, Director General. We have been a fully autonomous Anglophone CEGEP since 1988, opened our new building on Cité des Jeunes in Gatineau in 1994, now have over 1000 students enrolled in our different programs, and still, a lot of Outaouais residents don’t know we exist, or that we are in fact a CEGEP! This open house is meant to correct that.”

On October 17th from 1:30 - to 4:30 p.m., the public will be able to meet and greet with College senior management, faculty and staff, visit the pre-university, career and continuing education program showcases, find out about student life and athletics at Heritage, and obtain information about Student Services. Visitors will also be able to tour the campus and walk about its beautiful grounds surrounded by Gatineau Park.

Heritage College’s is located at 325 Cité des Jeunes, in Gatineau. The open house will be held from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. on Sunday October 17th 2010.
