

Heritage College Women's AA Basketball News

Congratulations to Katie Dolan and Meg McConnell for being named to the all-star intercollegiate basketball team for their division. Congratulations also to Ray Compas for being named Southwest Conference Coach of the Year.

For the first time in 14 years, the Heritage College women's AA basketball team advanced to the regional championship elimination rounds. Although they lost their first two matches, just making it there was a tremendous accomplishment. Kudos to this year's team and their coach for a phenomenal season.
