

Cégep Heritage College Visual Arts Student awarded Special Mention at Le monde en images provincial photo contest.

Gatineau, June 1, 2012 – One of the 6519 photos submitted by 277 students from 62 institutions of the Québec college network, Charlotte Boiral's Think outside the box photo received a Special Mention from the jury of the 1st edition of the Le monde en images photo contest.

Organized by the Collegial Centre for Educational Materials Development (CCDMD), the contest's objective was to encourage upcoming artists and promote the production and sharing of artistic works and quality documentaries. The contest was restricted to students of the Quebec college network.

The CCDMD produces printed, digital and online materials for teaching staff and students throughout the Québec college system. Its mandate is both to ensure that students in the system have access to quality educational materials in both French and English, and to contribute to the development of these materials at the various stages of production.

Charlotte Boiral, graduating student of Cégep Heritage College, the Anglophone CEGEP in the Outaouais, will be attending the Emily Carr University of Art + Design, one of Canada's premier post-secondary universities specializing in undergraduate and graduate art and design education and research, to study photography.

About Cégep Heritage College: Cégep Heritage College is one of 48 CEGEPs (Collèges d'Enseignement Général et Professionnel) in the province of Quebec, the only English CEGEP in Western Quebec. The College offers five pre-university programs, and eight career programs.

Quality education, small classes, a friendly atmosphere, and dynamic extra-curricular and social activities make Cégep Heritage College the perfect place to study and meet new friends. The College's modern facilities feature a gymnasium, fitness centre, dance studio, comprehensive library, and 156-seat auditorium. Our spacious campus grounds include a large soccer field, basketball court, beach volleyball courts, biking and hiking paths.
